Introduction

The Active Aging Conference in Asia Pacific (ACAP) was started in Fukuoka-city, 2005. In order to realizing active aging in Asia Pacific areas, researchers/policy makers/community leaders organized an international consortium and shared the concept and solutions for the active aging.

We had conferences in Fukuoka-city & Suo-oshima-cho(JPN), Honolulu (USA), Namhae-county (Korea), Shanghai (China), Fukuoka, Bali (Indonesia), Kitakyushu-city (JPN), Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia), and Singapore. The consortium members are expanding in Japan, U.S.A., Korea, China, Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Mongolia, Australia, New Zealand, Philippines, and so on.

We will celebrate the 10th Fukuoka Active Aging Conference in Asia Pacific in Fukuoka-city, 2016. (In accordance with Japanese sense, the March, 2016 is still 2015 fiscal year.)

Nowadays, almost countries and areas are aware of the inevitable population aging. In a next stage, we will challenge its solutions globally. The concept of active aging and age-friendly city is an ideal framework of social policy. We will have to enhance the collaboration among academic, industrial, governmental and civic circles for resolving tasks which will be occurred with population aging. Therefore, we will come together in Fukuoka-city and discuss about some topics.
